

Removal of Clean Air Vehicle Stickers From Junked Vehicles

New Information

Dismantlers taking possession of junked vehicles having Clean Air Vehicle Stickers (carpool stickers) must immediately remove and destroy the stickers.

Background

The Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) maintains a database of vehicles issued Clean Air Vehicle Stickers. When one of these vehicles is no longer operational and is junked, the stickers must be removed. Maintaining an accurate record of these vehicles allows DMV to track the number of sticker-bearing vehicles in the carpool lanes.
